"THERE ARE INJUSTICES SO WRONG ON THIS VAST CONTINENT [Australia] that they burn deep, they continue, they become more, they divide humanity, fracture humanity. The belief that we have to compromise, reduce what needs be said so as to carry people to common ground never achieves universality, never carries all sides, all the people, to for instance equality, justice, to the good end. The carrying of people arrives on the back of the truth. Truth does not seek to victimise and accuse, it does not seek to make hostages of all those who are wrong. Truth seeks the freeing of everyone. In this tenet we must be solid-in-our-thinking. We must not fear that the truth will offend the perpetrators or the institutions they represent or are protected by. We must fear only our own silence. We must not fear any level of persecution, we must not fear what those who do wrong or what those others who insist on silence about wrongs will do to us. We must be fearless."

Dr. GERRY GEORGATOS is a long-time researcher of racism, deaths in custody, and unnatural deaths. He is also an advocate of prison reform and restorative justice. His words quoted above relate to injustice which has been inflicted on Black/Indigenous people for centuries by racist Whites in Australia. But the official psycho-political incident of State terrorism in Tasmania in 1996 has led to the worst injustice of modern-day Australia. That 35 people were fatally shot and 23 wounded, and that NO judicial process was initiated to determine the whole truth, and that the innocent person blamed then incarcerated for life for the entire incident has been killed in custody, and that the families, relatives, and friends of all the victims have been denied truth and justice makes the massacre at and near Port Arthur and what has ensued the worst injustice of modern times. Note there have been larger massacres in Terra Australis since the British invasion in 1788. Historians record possibly up to a thousand Black/Indigenous people were slaughtered in 1840 during a mass killing in Victoria. Hunting parties were organized in 19th-century Tasmania to rid the island of its original inhabitants. Etc. What was officially perpetrated in Tasmania in 1996 has a blood-soaked trail leading from it back to Botany Bay in New South Wales. Every massacre in Australia has been undertaken to annihilate/dominate/eradicate/exterminate/subjugate people there. Facts confirm the purpose of the official killing and wounding at and near Port Arthur was to bring about political support for de-arming (dominating) the populace. MARTIN BRYANT WAS INNOCENT

DURING a phone conversation with Keith Allan Noble on 27 MAY 2016

Graham Derek Collyer
reconfirmed the innocence of
Martin Bryant:

"He was not the man who shot me."

This eyewitness and victim of the shooting inside the Broad Arrow Café at the Port Arthur Historic Site first confirmed this innocence in his

Witness Statement
given to Tasmania Police on
7&8 MAY 1996

"[The gunman] seemed about 20.
He had long blonde bedraggled hair about 3-4 inches below the shoulder.

He looked like he might have had a lot of acne. A pitted face.... I think I probably would identify him if I saw him again."

Martin Bryant was almost 30 at the time of the massacre. He did NOT have hair below the shoulder, and he did NOT have a pitted face – confirmed by his mother and by original images; see page 1 and Tasmania Police interview video.

(For statements by other eyewitnesses – for example,
"the picture I saw in the newspapers was not the same person" – confirming Martin Bryant was innocent,

THE HISTORY

FOR OVER TWO DECADES, mongrels* have been lying and deceiving the people of Australia. Officials in many places have corrupted the national political process, perverted the legal system in Tasmania, denied glaring documented truths, and/or prevented justice from being served. (* vernacular Australian word meaning despicable person/party)

In Tasmania in April 1996, it is alleged that 35 people were killed and 23 were wounded at and near the Port Arthur Historic Site. It was an official crime – a crime so horrific it sent shock-waves the length and breadth of the land down under. Hate and vengeance came to the fore rapidly, force-fed by mainstream media broadcasting unproved accusations and manipulated images to implicate and demonise Martin Bryant who was blamed for the entire incident.

But it was impossible for this mentally-handicapped patsy to have undertaken all the planning, the provision of all the equipment*, and the perpetration of all the crimes at seven locations. False statements based on supposed facts were made repeatedly by officials before a thorough investigation was completed. In fact, NO such investigation was undertaken – then or since. (* Includes: a 22-body refrigerated mortuary truck; special embalming equipment “manufactured ready for the incident” – officially confirmed in writing by Stephen Parry who became a Liberal Party (TAS) senator; allegedly dozens of weapons and thousands of rounds of ammunition none of which was ever proved to be acquired or transported to Port Arthur by the patsy.)

Instead of putting every official resource into determining exactly how the incident occurred, the State went out of its way to ensure there was NO assessment and public release of all associated facts. It also ensured Martin Bryant had NO competent and committed legal representative. There was NO trial, NO coronial inquest, NO public enquiry, NO royal commission, etc. Legally required processes were NOT permitted. Opinions and suppositions were allowed to suppress searches for evidence. An unthinking shocked public was deceived by biased media and the Tasmanian legal system was upended. Mongrel members – includes every barrister there, all of whom are officers of the court – ignored the setting up and sacrifice of an innocent patsy. After being kept in isolation for over six months, Martin Bryant was declared guilty without a shred of evidence being presented and proved in a trial, with a jury, as was required by law.

One difficult thing to do in life is to unlearn what has been learnt. People become attached to what they believe is correct. Challenges to their beliefs are quickly ridiculed even when there is evidence their beliefs are patently wrong. How the killing and wounding at and near Port Arthur in April 1996 were perpetrated are good examples of such beliefs. Unthinking people (includes witnesses) have been gulled into fixed mind-sets. The result is they do NOT reflect on all the hard evidence which reveals the official narrative is corrupt. People with such fixed beliefs refuse to question and simply accept inaccurate and incomplete evidence be it physical or testimonial.

The only thing that can help ease the pain and address the injustice arising from the official massacre in Tasmania is the bright light of truth. Innocent Martin Bryant should never have been convicted then incarcerated – but he was. And though the State knew the likelihood was great that Martin Bryant would be killed in any place of detention, he was wrongly incarcerated in 1996 at Risdon Prison near Hobart – never to be released. Now Martin has been killed. ■

THE BOY-MAN

MARTIN BRYANT* was the first child (born 7 MAY 1967) of Carleen and the late Maurice Bryant, his two loving parents. Lindy his sister arrived on 24 JUL 1972. As best he could, Martin grew up in the Australian state of Tasmania. His early life and upbringing have been detailed by his mother in a candid work of family history called MY STORY. (* no middle name)

In her book, Carleen Bryant states, amongst many other things, the following about her son:

"I know my son and it is difficult to imagine him being able to plan these events [massacre of 35 killed and 23 wounded at seven crime scenes at and near Port Arthur, Tasmania, in April 1996]. Psychologists determined that Martin's IQ was that of an 11-year-old. He could not even plan his overseas trips. He would fly to one country and then decide on the spur of the moment where to visit next. He struggled with simple things such as how to remove a wheel from a bicycle, how to construct something from a Meccano set or build a simple airplane such as young boys enjoy making. Martin could drive an automatic car but he could never sit for a driver's licence." (pp. 133-134; added emphasis)

"I wondered why it was that Martin was initially questioned without having a lawyer present. These were, after all, horrendous charges and at no time should he have been questioned without legal assistance, especially given his intellectual impairment which would have been quite obvious from the start." (p. 134; added emphasis)

Mrs. Bryant holds nothing back. She describes, as only a mother of a mentally-handicapped child can, the difficulties her son Martin had to contend with growing up – and later as a young man. Martin's IQ was determined to be 66 by Australian psychologist Ian Joblin in June 1996. This put Martin in the bottom one to two percent of the Australian population. Officially determined to be incapable of engaging in meaningful permanent employment, Martin received a Tasmanian disability pension.

Additional insights into the mental incompetence of Martin Bryant have been provided by the young woman Petra Willmott, who in 1996 had an intimate relationship with him. This is what Willmott declared in one of her Witness Statements:

"He doesn't remember a lot of things that I say to him and he forgets what he's doing sometimes." (28 APR 1996; added emphasis)

From those who knew him personally – NOT from those who made negative statements based on unproved media accusations – we learn Martin Bryant was handicapped mentally. It seems he was born that way. Despite all the attention bestowed on him by his loving family, Martin did NOT mature mentally and he can be described as a boy-man. In April 1996, he was almost a 29-year-old man who lived life as best he could with the mind of an 11-year-old boy. ■

WRONGLY & CRUELLY HELD INCOMMUNICADO

Don Pike
c/o Post Office
St. Mary's TAS 7215
24 June 2005

Judge S. Tennent
Tasmania Supreme Court
GPO Box 167
Hobart TAS 7001

Dear Madame,

I was pleased to read recently of your new appointment to the judiciary as one who was particularly interested in reform of Risdon Prison. It is always a concern that prisoners everywhere should be afforded fair and humane treatment during prison confinement and especially if that confinement is one of isolation. I feel you would agree that the forgoing should apply to all prisoners, irrespective of the nature of the conviction.

When Martin Bryant was imprisoned we were told that he refused to see his sister or mother. This morning the hospital section at Risdon informed me that he occasionally has consented to see his mother and did so. They further offered (or I requested) that they ask Martin would he consent to see me (a stranger). After a few moments I was informed that he had been asked the question, but had refused (he was said to have not answered his inquirer, but just walked away). I was further told that that behaviour was typical of his response when he was not interested in a visit.

The problem is, of course, when a prisoner is held incommunicado, it will always be easy for the authorities to say the prisoner doesn't want to talk to anyone, when in fact the truth may have been to the contrary. I am not suggesting that this is the situation in Bryant's case. However, and notwithstanding a person's right to refuse visits, it also follows that if justice is to be done (and not just seen to be done) a genuine determination must be made to show clearly and without any reservations that a prisoner did in fact refuse visitation and acted of his/her own unaffected free will.

To this end I believe that it is crucially important that a panel of suitable people be allowed to visit a prisoner, periodically, to make such determination and to establish, as far as possible, that there has been no coercion. Further, it would be equally important that affidavital documentation should be furnished from a medical officer (and others?) both inside and outside the prison system to establish that the prisoner has not been subjected to mind bending or control drugs. This would be particularly applicable to prisoners who are subjects of doubt or controversy as to their conviction.

I believe it should follow that the right of privacy, under no circumstances, should be regarded as priority over the above. A person's incarceration begets a regime of reasonable controls. Food and drink (special diet), recreation, exercise, medical attention, religion, etc. Perhaps as little as three visits per year to determine the veracity of their wishes, cannot be genuinely construed as an infringement of anyone's rights.

I would be pleased of your assistance in establishing what is suggested.

Yours sincerely,

Don Pike

(amended; original emphasis)

ARE YOU SURPRISED to learn that Mr. Pike did NOT receive a reply from Shan Eve Tennent, or any other official? For over 20 years, access to Martin Bryant was officially restricted to ensure the public never learnt the whole truth from or about him. The media however, was allowed to publish cruel demonising articles and false images about Martin during all that time. ■

KILLED IN CUSTODY

AUSTRALIA HAS A LONG HISTORY of criminal officials killing innocent people in their care – officials who records confirm are never convicted then imprisoned. For example: Chris Hurley a member of the Queensland Police Service (motto: With Honour We Serve) was charged with the killing of Mulrunji on Palm Island. According to a coronial post-mortem, the death of this innocent man, in November 2004, was the result of "an intra-abdominal haemorrhage caused by a ruptured liver and portal vein" – massive physical damage which the public was led to believe resulted from Mulrunji tripping on a set of stairs. But what really happened is that Hurley (judge, jury, and executioner) got things sorted at Palm Island police station and set up Mulrunji for the long box. And when the residents of Palm Island expressed their very understandable rage, Queensland Police unleashed its heavily-armed but lightly-brained racist thugs on the men, women, and children. As for the killer Hurley, he was declared NOT guilty by an all-White jury and subsequently was promoted. (see MASS MURDER; 2014: pp. 107-112)

Whether it's identified with the official euphemism death in custody, or identified with the phrase killed in custody, or called homicide or murder, really makes NO difference. All these words convey the same meaning – an innocent person has been killed while in the care of some official(s) of the State. Of course the State will say and do everything it can to absolve itself. Only in the most extreme situations will any State admit some degree of culpability. But in Australia and around the world, prisons, lock-ups, and watch-houses are notorious places of official violence leading to injury and death. NO State can ever claim total innocence about incidents past, present, or future. The State knows acts of official violence, up to and including murder, are attempted in places of incarceration – and some of those attempts are successful.

Killing innocent Martin Bryant was promoted by the media and by members of the public from 1996 onwards. In 2015, News Corporation Australia (NCA) published despicable images (allegedly taken by Gary Ramage) with unproved allegations which again demonised innocent Martin Bryant. Here are some of the Internet comments that NCA incited from the public, comments which the then attorney-general, minister for justice, and minister for corrections in Tasmania (Vanessa Goodwin) ignored: "Burn him alive"; "Firing squad"; "Give him a bullet"; "Injection soon"; "...inmates should knock him"; "Just shoot him"; "Kill him"; etc.

Through their inaction, mongrel officials ignored and/or abetted hatred toward Martin Bryant. The State knew it had the responsibility to protect Martin for 24 hours a day, every day of every year – a responsibility it failed to fulfill. It seems that in 2016, Martin was moved from the Wilfred Lopes Centre with its high internal security into the main buildings at the Risdon Prison complex where internal security for inmates is lower. The opportunity for someone (official or inmate) to kill him was thus greatly increased.

Martin Bryant was falsely convicted then wrongly imprisoned by the State. His death in prison was NOT natural because his whole life after April 1996 was controlled by the State, which determined how and where he was to live – and to die. Martin Bryant was innocent and should never have been in any prison in Tasmania or in any other part of Australia. His killing whilst in the care of the State was predictable. For his death, there is NO doubt the State is to blame. ■

CORONIAL POST-MORTEM

NOW MARTIN BRYANT IS DEAD, a coroner of the magistrates' court of Tasmania is required by law to inquire into his death as "the deceased was being held in care or custody at the time of death." (see magistratescourt.tas.gov.au/divisions/coronial/coronial_process) Note that an inquiry – also called an investigation – is NOT an inquest. An inquiry can be a superficial process in which the facts recorded are minimal, and conclusions are wilfully incomprehensive and/or benign. This is what is acknowledged on the above identified website: "In the vast majority of cases, the Coroner concludes the investigation with a written Finding prepared 'in chambers' without the need* for a formal inquest at which sworn evidence is taken in court from witnesses who can be cross-examined." (* This can always be corrupted by political pressure.)

The coroner who conducts the inquiry/investigation into the death of Martin Bryant will do everything he/she can to truncate and terminate that process to ensure there is no inquest. And the same coroner is NOT, under Tasmanian legislation, required to have a post-mortem (autopsy) conducted provided the cause of death is (allegedly) known. Have NO doubt the State will find some physician to sign the necessary documents declaring the cause of death – direct cause and antecedent causes – was benign. Martin will probably be blamed for his own death with the cause being listed as heart infarct (direct cause) with obesity and inactivity (antecedent causes) being listed. Alternatively, a brain haemorrhage from some alleged fight or fall will be used to complete the form. As for manner of death (natural, accidental, suicidal, or homicidal), it is highly unlikely to be recorded on any official document.

With reference to a complete*, three-cavity, post-mortem, such a procedure is highly unlikely to be performed. If such a coronial post-mortem is conducted, the findings will NOT be made public and it is highly unlikely that Martin's mother Carleen Bryant will be provided with the detailed findings. (* Necessitates testing for poisons – which includes prescription medications because intentional excess dosages may have been given to Martin to induce his death.)

NO official details related to the killing of Martin Bryant and the subsequent coronial inquiry/investigation can be readily accepted as the truth. In MY STORY (pp. 153-154), Martin's mother writes she was told his medical records were NOT available at Risdon Prison in 2009 – those records "disappeared." So whatever mind-altering drugs and in what quantities were pushed into Martin between 1996 and 2009 are NOT going to become public knowledge. And you can bet big money that Mrs. Bryant and the public are never going to be told what mind-altering drugs and in what quantities were pushed into innocent Martin from 2009 until the time of his death.

The inquest related to the official massacre in Tasmania in 1996 was wrongly terminated. This termination was abetted by the prime minister of Australia (see MONGRELS IMPLICATED) and is confirmed by a letter (31 JAN 1997) which the chief coroner's delegate Ian R. Matterson sent to Stephen Howard, a Port Arthur Historic Site employee whose dear wife was fatally shot inside the café near the inoperable emergency door. Matterson confirms the cover-up by the State: "...any finding I make must not be inconsistent with the decision of the Supreme Court." (see MASS MURDER; 2014: p. 252) Matterson knew his findings would be inconsistent with the decision made by the so-called court ("guilty"; 19 NOV 1996) – so he terminated the inquest. ■

BODY DISPOSAL

WHAT WILL THEY DO WITH THE BODY – the dead body which proves their guilt?

Will they return it in a long box to his mother and sister – with their official but heartlessly cold condolences?

Will they slip it out of Risdon Prison in the dark of night in their 22-body mortuary truck – headed off to the likes of corrupt embalmer Stephen Parry* and undertakers Nelson Brothers? (* MASSACRE: Stephen Shane Parry; notice to Senate of Australia; 2016. see RESOURCES)

Will they burn it and dispose of the ashes in some secret process hoping to prevent his grave from becoming a flowered shrine on Facebook – to official cruelty, injustice, and corruption in Australia?

But really, it doesn't matter. Because regardless of whether the body of Martin Bryant is buried or burnt he is now a martyr to truth – the indelible truth which the mongrels will never erase regardless of how hard they try.

NO official act or statement will ever hide, disguise, or excuse the cruelty and injustice inflicted on innocent Martin Bryant and his family – and on the 58 victims killed and wounded at the official massacre at and near Port Arthur in Tasmania in 1996, and on all the families, relatives, and friends of those victims. Like the massacre, this cruelty and injustice are official crimes. ■

MARTIN BRYANT WAS INNOCENT

"THE MONSTROUSNESS of this crime is precisely what prevents many people from rationally considering the evidence, for even to do so one risks being judged as excusing the crime. The evidence directly implicating Martin Bryant is nonexistent, so, instead the case against Bryant (which was never formally put because there was no trial) largely centres on supposed facts."

James Sinnamon

STATE STIGMATA

MARTIN BRYANT WAS A PATSY. He was set up then blamed – the proof is documented and extensive – for the official massacre at and near Port Arthur. The official narrative is a blatant lie. Hard facts which incriminate mongrel officials will NOT go away regardless of their attempts to disavow their guilt related to the massacre, the cover-up of that massacre, the false conviction and wrongful imprisonment of innocent Martin Bryant, and his killing. Some of the indelible stigmata of the State are:

DECEPTIVE BALASKO VIDEO

THREE MONTHS AFTER the official massacre, a James Balasko appeared at a New Jersey (USA) police station. He claimed he had a video of the Port Arthur gunman. But he had NOT said a word about any video to any official when allegedly he was at Port Arthur in April 1996. Martin Bryant is NOT recorded on this fake evidence: all facial features of the alleged gunman are blurred; the hair (possibly a wig) is too long and straight for the person to be Martin Bryant; etc.

1. NO trial;
2. NO inquest;
3. NO public enquiry;
4. NO royal commission;
5. NO DNA-related evidence;
6. NO GSR (gunshot residue) found on Martin Bryant;
7. NO credible official explanation for any significant part of the incident;
8. NO competent and committed legal defence provided for Martin Bryant;
9. NO explanation for the black van photographed parked outside the Broad Arrow Café;
10. NO explanation for the cartridge case said to have been found beneath a Mikac child body;
11. NO complete list of evidential items – bottle of tomato sauce; handcuffs; handgun; infra-red sighting scope; marijuana, video camera; etc.;
12. NO official identification of "Tiger" who, eyewitness Petra Willmott wrote in one of her statements, disturbed/intimidated Martin Bryant;
13. NO credible explanation for the existence of a 22-body refrigerated mortuary vehicle in little Tasmania – the only such vehicle in all of Australia;
14. NO credible firearm evidence (acquisition, calibers, makes, ownership, quantities, storage prior to massacre, transportation to Port Arthur, etc.);
15. NO fingerprints – NOT even from the yellow Volvo, food tray, cutlery, metal drink (Solo) can, sports bag, video camera all of which a/the gunman handled then left behind;
16. NO credible timeline – based on written witness statements, Martin Bryant could NOT have been at all the places that he was said to have been at the times official alleged;
17. NO explanation of the footwear worn by the gunman/men – in writing, eyewitnesses reported Blundstone boots, grey-blue Nikes, lace-up boots, and white sandshoes;

1967–201-
– MARTIN BRYANT –
KILLED IN CUSTODY, TASMANIA, AUSTRALIA

18. NO explanation for why Debra Jane Buckley, who wrote she was c.30 metres from a/the gunman, did NOT hear a firearm discharge when the three Mikacs were allegedly shot;
19. NO explanation for absence of Tasmania Police at the historic site after the shooting which commenced just before 1:30pm – armed police in numbers did NOT arrive until 7:30pm;
20. NO explanation why allegedly Martin Bryant, who did NOT use drugs, would buy marijuana from two strangers after repairing their vehicle which Martin Bryant could NOT have done;
21. NO credible proof Michael Mick/Rick Dyson of Tasmania Police was/is innocent. His statement, given 139 days after the massacre, is highly suggestive of his negative involvement;

COERCED CONFESSION

CHESTER PORTER QC, one of the more renowned lawyers Australia has ever produced, says the following in his insightful THE CONVICTION OF THE INNOCENT (see RESOURCES):
"The point is that even if a confession is accurately recorded and completely voluntary, it may be false.... If a person has an IQ of seventy, it is not difficulty for experienced detectives[/officials] to persuade him of her to confess to almost anything." (p. 19)
Mentally-handicapped Martin Bryant had an even lower IQ of 66.

22. NO explanation for the highly accurate lethal shooting inside the café which an Australian military expert (Brigadier Ted Serong) confirmed could NOT have been done by Martin Bryant;
23. NO proof Martin Bryant burnt the BMW vehicle or Seascape Cottage – evidence suggests that Martin (drugged or unconscious) was left in that cottage to be killed by being burnt to death;
24. NO explanation of the statement made by the police negotiator Terry McCarthy who said he thought Jamie "was reading from some sort of script" when they spoke over the phone;
25. NO credible proof Gerard Dutton of Tasmania Police was/is innocent. Analysis of his declaration reveals numerous highly questionable points arising from his ballistic suppositions;
26. NO explanation for the permission to shoot request from constable Pat Allen being answered with do not shoot this has to happen as broadcast on the intercepted Tasmanian Emergency Services radio;
27. NO explanation for the special embalming equipment "manufactured ready for the incident" by Nelson Brothers, funeral directors in Victoria as confirmed in writing (see RESOURCES) by Stephen Shane Parry;
28. NO explanation why suspicious Robert & Helene Salzmann (ASIO/CIA/MOSSAD handlers?) waited for a/the gunman at the tollbooth then went and sat inside the yellow Volvo which he drove there and spoke with him;
29. NO explanation how Martin Bryant, who had hair to his collar, could have had hair below his shoulders and down to his chest during the massacre which is what several eyewitnesses reported in writing (see RESOURCES);
30. NO explanation how a/the gunman in the café, who shot right-handed from the hip, could have been Martin Bryant who demonstrated to police (videoed by them) how he discharged a firearm left-handed from his shoulder;

1967–201-
– MARTIN BRYANT –
KILLED IN CUSTODY, TASMANIA, AUSTRALIA

- 31. NO explanation how Martin Bryant could have driven the gold-coloured BMW (plate/registration number DI 5858) away from the tollbooth given that vehicle had a manual-change gearbox which Martin could NOT operate;
- 32. NO official identification of the person(s) who covered the faces of the never-publicly-accounted-for bodies near the access road between the café and tollbooth as reported in writing by eyewitness Paul Anthony Cooper;
- 33. NO credible explanation for why the emergency door at the café was inoperable and could NOT be opened during the shooting which resulted in several people (employees & public) NOT being able to escape and thus being fatally shot;

NOT PROVED BEYOND REASONABLE DOUBT

ROBERT N. MOLES PhD LLB declares the following in his judicial critique A STATE OF INJUSTICE (see RESOURCES): "In criminal cases in Australia, the standard is proof of guilt 'beyond reasonable doubt.' This means that any doubts must be fully investigated in order to determine whether or not they are reasonable. A doubt cannot be regarded as unreasonable simply because someone* has determined that it would be inconvenient to explore that possibility. Such an attitude would be based on prejudice, which simply means that the issue has been 'prejudged.' All reasonable lines of inquiry must be pursued..." (p. xx) * For example, Damian Bugg and William Cox in the Port Arthur case.

- 34. NO explanation for why eyewitness Gregory Keith Barnett, who wrote that, immediately after the shooting at the general store, he saw three bodies on the ground at the historic site tollbooth, but, did "not see any vehicles at all" there;
- 35. NO explanation for the gunshots recorded during conversations between police negotiator Terry McCarthy and Jamie – gunshots within Seascope Cottage and deceptively described with the word "cough" (appears 22 times) on the official transcript;
- 36. NO explanation for all the yellow Volvos – with and without surfboards, with and without surfboard covers, and with different plate/registration numbers (CC 904?, CC 2835, CG 2835, CS 2835, DC ????) – seen at and near the Port Arthur Historic Site;
- 37. NO identification of the person who allegedly sold "guns" to Martin Bryant – it was NOT the Tasmanian gunshop proprietor Terry Hill, who mongrel lawyer John Avery wrote and attempted to intimidate (see Avery's letter to Hill in MASS MURDER; 2014: p. 31);
- 38. NO identification of a/the gunman reported by the eyewitness John Douglas Rooke who wrote in his statement that he was shot at by a slightly-built man about 5 foot 5 inches in height with "short mousy coloured hair with a full-faced beard that was light in colour";
- 39. NO explanation of how (type of payment?) Martin Bryant acquired the ammunition (allegedly thousands of rounds) and firearms (allegedly over 30) and where it was all hidden (allegedly) from Carleen Bryant, Petra Willmott, and his neighbours, NOT one of whom ever saw anything;
- 40. NO explanation how mentally-handicapped Martin Bryant could recall correctly the number of a passport during the middle of the so-called siege at Seascope (the siege that did NOT take place), but was unable to recall the shorter plate/registration number of his own yellow Volvo;

1967–201-
– MARTIN BRYANT –
KILLED IN CUSTODY, TASMANIA, AUSTRALIA

41. NO credible identification – NO person knew he/she had seen Martin Bryant. They were told it was him and naively repeated that false official allegation. The only person (James/Jim Laycock) who knew Martin, and who saw a/the gunman, wrote that gunman was NOT Martin Bryant;

42. NO explanation why the four people (Mary Rose Nixon, Robert & Helene Salzmann, Russell James Pollard) – all of whom were allegedly fatally shot – had just the week before most probably met at or near Bilambil Heights / Ocean Shores / Brunswick Heads in northern NSW;

43. NO explanation for the naked, black-haired, woman who several Tasmania Police reported, in writing, screaming and running near Seascope around 6pm on Sunday 28 APR 1996 – it was NOT Sally Martin the grey-haired co-owner of that cottage who officials declared was killed much earlier around midday;

44. NO explanation for the three shots which several people reported were fired in front of the Clougha building (Port Arthur Historic Site) at 6:30pm (Sunday 28 APR 1996), shots which could NOT have been fired by Martin Bryant who at that time was officially inside Seascope Cottage approximately three kilometres away;

45. NO explanation for the presence of two sports bags which eyewitnesses reported were carried by a/the gunman at the historic site – one bag was left in the café by a/the gunman, and a second sports bag was reported being carried from the café by a/the gunman who put it in the boot of a vehicle at the car park;

46. NO credible explanation for the shotgun pellet wounds – allegedly a shotgun was NOT discharged inside the café – reported by an historic site employee (first-aid instructor Wendy Scurr) and confirmed by Dr. Stephen Wilkson of the Royal Hobart Hospital who stated the following: "wherever we looked we found pellets";

47. NO credible explanation for why so many pages of the interview transcript were redacted, deleted, or not presented at the hearing, which was NOT a trial: "We know that 52 of the first 146 pages of transcript were not presented." (A.R. Tony Pitt; http://southeastasianews.org/portarthur/conspiracy_fact.html; JUN 2016);

48. NO explanation for what happened to the rented (AVIS) red Commodore (plate/registration number DK 2661) which was abandoned by the two highly suspicious Buckleys (allegedly from New Zealand) at the tollbooth and which at some unidentified time was driven away by some unidentified person, quite possibly the first gunman. (see Points 34 & 50);

49. NO explanation for behaviour of Tasmanian cop Chris Iles who spoke with eyewitnesses near the general store, where the body of Zoe Hall was and from where Glen Pears was taken, but who then drove away and disappeared from that scene – subsequently, Iles did NOT submit a witness statement, or if he did the corrupt prosecutor did NOT present it to the corrupt judge;

50. NO explanation for the written statements made by two witnesses: 1. Steven Howard – site employee said the following about a/the gunman he saw before the shooting at the café: "He looked slightly disheveled, like someone would look at the end of the day rather than the beginning of the day. He also appeared to me to be slightly dazed or perhaps slightly anxious"; 2. Debra Rabe (site guest said the following about a/the gunman she saw at the general store after the shooting at the café, at the car park, along the access road, and at the tollbooth: "I remember he was very neat and well-groomed." Strongly suggests there were two gunmen.

N.B. In the very true words of Andrew S. MacGregor, a former cop (VIC) and case investigator: "Martin Bryant was totally betrayed by the Tasmanian judicial system." (A Question of Guilt) ■

– MARTIN BRYANT –
WRONGLY & CRUELLY CONDEMNED BY MEDIA

"AUSTRALIANS will again be told lies about Port Arthur in Tasmania by Channel 7 this Sunday 6th [March 2016]. Saying the shooting incident that took place there in April 1996 is 'Australia's worst massacre' is absolute hype. Many massacres in Australia have resulted in more people being killed. The truth about the official killing at Port Arthur has been covered up by complicit officials who have denied truth and justice to all the families, relatives, and friends of the victims. It is the corrupt official narrative that Channel 7 will broadcast again. Mainstream media deception continues."

Martin Bryant Show By Channel 7 Sunday Night Will Not Tell The Truth About Port Arthur

cairnsnews.org
4 MAR 2016

"AS THE DOCUMENTARY [A Question of Guilt: The Massacre at Port Arthur] shows, there are compelling reasons for believing Martin Bryant's conviction and jailing were a cruel miscarriage of justice.... The Port Arthur saga is – in part – a story about the media. En bloc, Australia's mass media quickly embraced the orthodoxy that Martin Bryant was guilty of committing the atrocity, that he acted alone – and that these 'facts' are not in serious doubt. The media also promoted the view that anyone who does doubt these 'established facts' is likely to be a disgruntled shooting enthusiast, who may themselves be deranged and dangerous."

The Port Arthur Massacre: A Sceptical Re-Appraisal

sydwalker.info
17 DEC 2010

"WITH THE LATEST DEVELOPMENTS about the Murdoch News Media and their proven ability to influence people through lies and distortions in other stories of late, we hope to broaden sympathy for an inquiry into the deaths of the 35 people at Port Arthur at the hands of an unknown killer still at large. It is not true that the Murdoch corruption has not extended to this country. I have been aware of it since the Lindy Chamberlain trials during which the media refused to report aboriginal women's evidence that dingos had taken their children too and so convinced the public that she had lied. Recent deaths of children being taken by dingos proves that the media were negligent in their reporting and contributed to the wrongful jailing of an innocent woman. The two media magnates who were responsible for the reporting of the Port Arthur massacre illegally entered Bryant's home and stole photographs from his kitchen table while he was in hospital and the house was marked off as a crime scene. They enhanced photos of him to make him look like a madman and then they were published before Bryant had even been interrogated by police. The Murdoch and Fairfax press were relentless to defame Bryant while at the same time ignoring evidence and obviously displaying dereliction of duty in finding the real killer."

Murdoch Media Proved To Be Corrupt in Court

members.iinet.net.au/~nedwood/Pam06.html#murdock
23 JUN 2016

WITHIN 24 HOURS of the massacre at and near Port Arthur, media were pushing the official narrative Martin Bryant was guilty. Within 48 hours, an image stolen from his home was published nationwide. The Australian altered this image making Martin look maniacal. That newspaper later apologised. Almost completely and immediately, the public was duped into believing mentally-handicapped (IQ of 66) Martin was solely responsible for the entire massacre. Ever since, this false never-proved allegation has been broadcast by corrupt media – via mongrels like Mike Bingham, Stan Grant, Derryn Hinch, Paola Totaro, Robert Wainwright, Mike Willesee, etc. ■

RIGHTS IGNORED

DURING THE WRONGFUL IMPRISONMENT OF MARTIN BRYANT, successive governments in Tasmania and the media ignored guidelines, principles, standards, etc. related to incarcerated individuals. Before being killed, Martin was displayed at Risdon Prison and demonised nationally and internationally. Note the following extracts from the identified sources. AUSTRALIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

Prisoners and Human Rights

"One right of special importance to prisoners is the right to be treated with humanity, dignity and respect while in detention. This human right is set out in articles 7 and 10 of the ICCPR, article 37 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) and in the Convention Against Torture and other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (CAT)."

INDEPENDENT MEDIA COUNCIL CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PRINT & ONLINE PRINT MEDIA PUBLISHERS

"PUBLICATIONS must take all reasonable steps to ensure reports are honest, accurate, balanced and fair and disclose all essential facts. Reports must not suppress relevant available facts or give distorting emphasis. Where a report disparages any person or organisation, all reasonable steps must be taken to provide a contemporaneous right of reply. Where a contemporaneous reply is not possible, publications should provide an opportunity for a suitably prominent response at the first opportunity. Reports should not refer to personal characteristics, including race, ethnicity, nationality, gender, age, sexual orientation, family relationships, religious belief, or physical or intellectual disability, or mental illness, unless they are relevant. Publications should use fair, responsible and honest means to obtain material and should not exploit a person's vulnerability or ignorance of media practice." AUSTRALIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

Medical Ethics in Custodial Settings 2013. Amended 2015.

"This statement provides the AMA's policy on ethical issues related to prisoners and detainees in custodial settings including body cavity searches, hunger strikes, solitary confinement and protective custody, restraints, torture, cruel, or inhumane treatment and capital punishment.

"1.1 Prisoners and detainees have a right to humane treatment, regardless of the reasons for their imprisonment, and should be treated with respect for their human dignity and privacy. They should never be denied treatment on the basis of their culture, ethnicity, religion, political beliefs, gender, sexual orientation, the nature of their illness, the reason for their incarceration, or their criminal history.

"1.4 Governments and prison authorities have a duty of care to all prisoners and detainees under their control, including those in private correctional facilities. Governments must provide basic humane standards and should strive to achieve world's best practice in all Australian correctional facilities including police custody, prison, juvenile detention centres, and other custodial settings...."

AUSTRALIAN PRESS COUNCIL

Standards of Practice; 1 JUL 1987

Guidelines Identifying a Person with an Intellectual Disability

"The Press Council believes that normally the identification of someone as a person with an intellectual disability is undesirable.... There may be circumstances which justify the identification of a person with an intellectual disability, but newspapers should consider carefully the reasons for publication and the possible consequences [DEATH for Bryant]; every consideration should be given to the privacy of the person, their parents and relatives, and those who look after them."

CONVENTION AGAINST TORTURE AND OTHER CRUEL, INHUMAN OR DEGRADING
TREATMENT OR PUNISHMENT 1984 (ratified by Australia on 8 AUG 1989)

Part 1, Article 16

"1. Each State Party shall undertake to prevent in any territory under its jurisdiction other acts of cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment which do not amount to torture as defined in article 1, when such acts are committed by or at the instigation of or with the consent or acquiescence of a public official or other person acting in an official capacity. In particular, the obligations contained in articles 10, 11, 12 and 13 shall apply with the substitution for references to torture of references to other forms of cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

"2. The provisions of this Convention are without prejudice to the provisions of any other international instrument or national law which prohibits cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment or which relates to extradition or expulsion."

STANDARD GUIDELINES FOR CORRECTIONS IN AUSTRALIA

revised 2012; accepted by Department of Justice, Tasmania

Guiding Principles for the Management of Prisoners (p.15)

"Correctional services in Australia seek to improve and maintain safety of and confidence in the correctional system by managing prisoners consistently and with reference to the guiding principles that prisoners are:

1. Managed and contained in a safe, secure, humane manner." ■

MARTIN BRYANT WAS INNOCENT

Supreme Court of Tasmania
website clearly states:

"People accused of serious offences, such as murder, manslaughter and serious drug offences, are dealt with in the Supreme Court after preliminary hearings have been conducted in the Magistrates' Court.

If there is a plea of not guilty, then a jury will decide whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty."

But in the Port Arthur massacre case, the NOT GUILTY plea of Martin Bryant was illegally refused.

He was kept isolated for over six months, which is torture and thus illegal, and coerced to accept the guilty plea of the state-paid mongrel lawyer John Avery. There was:

NO trial
NO inquest
NO public enquiry
NO royal commission

TRUTH and JUSTICE have not been served to the families, relatives, and friends of all the victims, and mentally-handicapped

Martin Bryant has been killed in custody after serving over 20 years in prison for crimes he did not commit.

KILLED IN CUSTODY, TASMANIA, AUSTRALIA

PRAYER

[T]o offer my condolence and sorrow to all of those affected on 28 April 1996, I placed a prayer in The Mercury newspaper in Hobart.

TO all of humanity affected by the agony resulting from the horror inflicted on innocence at Port Arthur,
one deeply traumatic year ago.

Of all people, I weep with you – with your bitter tears, with our suffering tears and with unique, unsharable tears of my own.

With you, I am worn out with grief.
But we can try to live above it.
Let us encourage one another by showing love.
God is like that.

He gives us the love we want to share.
Hate can be overcome with love.
As we have compassion and express it in practical ways, we will feel ourself being healed.

To overcome our tragedy, our best chance is to look forward with hope and overcome evil with the goodness which comes to us from God.

Seeking healing with you.
With all my compassion and love.

From that day to this, my prayer is always the same.

CARLEEN BRYANT – 1997

THIS PRAYER and prose above are from the heart, a mother's loving heart. Mrs. Bryant has NOT covered over failings nor has she dissembled as so many officials in Australia have done in relation to the case that involved her mentally-handicapped son. She raised concerns and questions which should have been addressed and answered long ago. Much is terribly wrong – so many people have been made to suffer. Now innocent Martin Bryant has been killed in custody. Objective readers who analyse the many hard facts will realise corrupt officials first manipulated a boy-man, then the public, to ensure more control of the populace long desired by the evil State. Since April 1996, the Truth has not been revealed to the nation. Contrary to Gordon Hewart's famous legal dictum (Law Reports King's Bench Division vol.1; 1924: p.259) – Justice has NOT been done and it is seen NOT to be done. The official massacre (killing & wounding) at and near Port Arthur in Tasmania is the worst injustice of modern-day Australia. ■
